Summary

After Four years of leading my own startup, Ktoon Animation Pvt. Ltd., I am excited to transition into a career in front-end web development. My journey began with a B.Tech in Computer Science in 2018, after which I dove into the entrepreneurial world of animation. Although the venture didn't go as planned, it provided me with invaluable experience in both technical and creative fields.

Throughout my time with Ktoon Animation, I honed my skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, responsive design, and the modern framework React.js. Managing successful animation projects and YouTube channels taught me the importance of user experience and attention to detail.

I am eager to bring my creativity, technical expertise, and entrepreneurial spirit to new challenges in the web development field. I am passionate about creating engaging and user-friendly web applications, and I am ready to contribute to a forward-thinking team.

Honors & Awards

Silver Creator Award - YouTube

Nov 2022

In bengali animation field I got my second award from YouTube. Right now I have 2 Gold and 4 Silver Creator Awards.

Silver Creator Award - YouTube

Sep 2022

I created 2 Bengali YouTube channels at the same time, and after a few months, I got another award from YouTube.

Gold Creator Award - YouTube

Mar 2021

Now I have 2 YouTube channels with more than 1,000,000 subscribers on each channel. I was so happy to receive this award again.

Silver Creator Award - YouTube

May 2019

I started my after-college career as YouTuber and created one more channel, after a few months I got another award from YouTube for that channel.

Gold Creator Award - YouTube

Aug 2018

It took almost 1.5 years to win this award for the same channel I created 2 years back. This channel boosts me to create a few other channels so can spend more time at I love to do.

Silver Creator Award - YouTube

Jul 2017

This award was my first stepping stone in YouTube's world. This a vast area where creators can occur in any content, especially blogging, but I was never blogging, so it was difficult for me to achieve this award.
